

Have the horse you want... In days, not months.

Do you want a horse that stands perfectly still to be saddled and mounted?

Do you want a horse that stands quietly to have his feet shod?

This 4-HOUR, 2-DVD set teaches you how to have the horse you want. By applying our techniques you can teach your horse to stand quietly and willingly for the farrier – and for brushing, saddling and mounting. The DVD is taped in real-time with limited editing so you can witness the entire process and see how quickly even the most difficult horses can learn positive behaviour.

The stars of the show are two horses with very different personalities:

Specter has more 'Go' than 'Whoa.' This gelding started at everything and wanted to be anywhere else. By patiently giving him the time to understand what was expected of him, we made excellent progress. With the right approach, horses can learn amazingly quickly.

Two Bits is a mare with a past. Trained to ride and sent to an outfitter for experience, she ended up half-starved and caught in barbed wire. We worked with her for two nights. Despite her troubled past, she was really willing to work – she just needed to be allowed to think her way through things.

This DVD is for anyone who wants a calm, disciplined horse that can be mounted easily and safely. Using these techniques you can significantly improve your relationship with your
